

India Gem & Jewellery Awards 2018

Eligibility Criteria

- Nominations are open exclusively for GJEPC members. i.e. for companies holding valid membership certificates/ RCMC (Registration Cum-Membership Certificate) of the GJEPC (The Gem & Jewellery Export Promotion Council) for at least two years - FY17 and FY18. However, the above criterion of minimum two years of holding GJEPC membership is not applicable for applications under the newly introduced categories i.e. Cut & Polished Laboratory Grown Diamonds and Precious Metal Jewellery Studded with Laboratory Grown Diamonds.
- Companies which are found in the 'Denied Entity List' (DEL) of the Directorate General of Foreign Trade will not be considered for any of the awards. The Awards Committee will not consider the nominations of companies who are defaulters in respect of their dues towards any outstanding membership fees to the Council. If any firm is found to be a defaulter for their dues towards any bank or any financial institution or otherwise, the said firm will not be considered for awards.
- If any enterprise is declared an NPA or is subjected to bankruptcy proceedings at the National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT) or have adopted different debt restructuring mechanisms, and the information about the same is received by the Council before scrutiny of application for awards, the said firm will not be considered for awards. The Awards Committee considers additional criteria such as corporate governance records of companies for the selection of award winners.
- All financial information furnished in the nomination form should be certified by the Management and a Chartered Accountant by filling in the Declaration section in the nomination form. Nomination forms with incomplete declaration details, with incomplete or inaccurate mandatory details or submitted without the specified mandatory documents are liable to be considered as 'incomplete' and hence can be disqualified for the awards.
